BUSINESS MENTORING PROGRAMME

The UCD Quinn Business Mentoring Programme is an optional programme for students in second year across all undergraduate programmes in the UCD Quinn School.

BUSINESS MENTORING

The UCD Quinn Business Mentoring Programme is an optional programme for students in second year across all undergraduate programmes in the UCD Quinn School. This is a six month programme running from November to April where undergraduate student mentees are matched with experienced UCD School of Business alumni mentors based on mentor expertise and career areas of interest to the mentees.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

The students and their alumni mentor commit to a minimum of three meetings with compulsory attendance at a training session, launch and closing event. In addition to the training, participants are supported throughout the programme by the Mentoring Manager and a set of clearly drafted Mentoring Guidelines.

90% of students felt they had improved their professional skills

The mentoring partnership provides students with an opportunity to gain insights into the business and personal skills required to succeed in today's competitive economy and to increase their confidence and employability through development of professional and interpersonal skills. All of the mentors are experienced former UCD College of Business alumni from a diverse range of business roles and sector backgrounds, who are committed to sharing professional knowledge and expertise with undergraduates.

EMMET O'REILLY
Commerce Graduate
Managing Director | Author

Over my four years with the programme, I've found the mentees to be highly motivated to learn from the process and very open to all advice given. The mentorship programme is a great opportunity for students to hear from seasoned professionals from a variety of sectors and provides the mentees with a different perspective as they consider career opportunities. The highlight for me of the mentoring programme has been witnessing the progress of the mentees during the process and to see how their confidence has grown. I would strongly encourage all students to embrace the opportunity to be mentored.

AINE BRADY
Commerce Student

I was partnered with Leanne Carrol, a commerce alumna, who recently started with Microsoft and their UX design team after working many years in marketing in New York. From day one, Leanne shared her experience, her knowledge and her time with me throughout this process as well as helping me improve my cv, cover letter and interview technique. She has gone above and beyond to help me further my skills and expand my knowledge of the industry and gave me an insight into the working world.

SHEDRACK ALLI

Commerce Student

When choosing a course to study, I really wanted to broaden my knowledge of business, while getting hands-on experience during my college years.

Studying Commerce has allowed me to gain a deeper knowledge of business and has helped identify special areas of interest to me. By studying in the Quinn School, I was able to take part in case competitions for KPMG and the Financial Times, and I have been given the opportunity to complete internships for both KPMG and Microsoft, which has given me the opportunity to put to use what I have learned in real-world scenarios.

I would recommend Commerce to anyone that wants to enhance their knowledge of business while getting the experience that can propel them beyond their undergraduate degree.

BCOMM INTERNATIONAL

BComm (Hons) (International) (NFQ Level 8)
CAO CODE: DN660

Commerce International (BCIT) combines a flexible business education from Ireland's leading business school with the linguistic skills and cultural understanding to succeed in the exciting world of international business.

WHY IS THIS COURSE FOR ME?

Students of the BCIT course are well-grounded in the theory and practice of business management and equipped to understand and comment critically on business issues. To achieve a truly global perspective on business, it is necessary to immerse yourself in the culture and not just learn the vocabulary. Students are brought to a high level of language proficiency and cultural sensitivity, which enables them to live abroad for a year and to study business through their chosen language. While this immersive experience is a demanding challenge, education experts have shown that these multicultural competencies are strongly linked with innovative thinking and creative performance.

WHAT WILL I STUDY?

On applying, you will select two languages to study, choosing from Chinese, French, German, Italian or Spanish. With the exception of French (H4 requirement), you will have the opportunity to study these languages from beginner level. At the end of the first trimester, students choose one of the two options to pursue as their language minor for the remainder of the course. While the European language options include a focus on literature and culture, the Chinese language option encompasses culture, politics, law and society.

Throughout the duration of the course, you will receive a firm foundation in core and specialist business disciplines, as well as developing your language proficiency to degree minor level.

INTERNATIONAL YEAR ABROAD

The year studying abroad at one of our highly regarded international business school partner universities is an integral part of the BCIT programme. When studying abroad in third year you will have two options:

The Modern Languages Route

With the European language minors, you will study business modules through the chosen language for the year, while the Chinese minor involves one trimester studying Chinese language and a second trimester studying business through English.

The Global Business Route

You will study international business abroad through English at one of our partner universities. In fourth year when you return to UCD, you will no longer study language, but will concentrate solely on business subjects.

In third year, whether at home or abroad, you will also have an opportunity to participate in the BCIT summer internship module, and avail of academic credit for this experiential learning.

The best parts about UCD are the various scholarships it offers, the constant efforts put in by the professors and most importantly the sense of community it provides.

Moreover, my course, BSc Economics and Finance, is one of the most diverse courses with its modules ranging from Statistics to Accounting which helped me get a deeper understanding of various subjects and how they are applicable in the real world. I would definitely recommend this course especially because of the internship opportunities it offers.

I chose UCD because of its good international reputation, and B&L due to the wide range of modules it offered. Living on campus in my first year allowed me to meet people from different programmes and really feel part of the UCD community. The most rewarding aspect of the programme was preparing teamwork projects, which helped us to develop fundamental soft skills like communication, flexibility and creativity, while making new friends at the same time.

ZSOFIA DOSA
DBS Student

I decided to enroll into the DBS/BBS course to help me with progressing with my career. I've made a career change five years ago and have felt that taking this course would help me move along in my career. Personally, it was the best decision to start my career first and have some professional experience and then start a course related to my chosen career path. I can relate my learnings in the course to my professional experience, and this makes it easier to understand the theory behind each subject. The lectures are very interesting and cover a lot of material, the schedule is created in a way to suit a busy schedule. The programme managers have offered an immeasurable amount of support to achieve my learning objectives throughout the year, and for me this is what made the difference in attending UCD's DBS Programme.
